WEDDINGS OF HALLOWE'EN.

Miss Jessie A. Tefft Married to Henry B. Slayback at Her Parents' Home.

Miss Jessie A. Tefft and Mr. Henry B. Slayback were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Tefft, No. 22 East Sixty-fourth street. It was a white bridal throughout. A chancel was arranged at one end of the long drawing-room, and an aisle in the centre for the bridal party to pass through of heavy white silk cords and posts. The bride the silk cords and posts. The bride entered on the arm of her father. The service was that of the Episcopal Church, read by Rev. Dr. Mackay Smith, the rector of St. John's. There were no bridesmaids or ushers, only members of the two families and the most intimate friends, including Secretary Carlisle's family, being present. lace veil caught with diamond ornaments and a coronet of orange blossoms. Her

Miss Edna Tefft, a sister, was maid of Cowing Miss Lizzie Clark and ma Lockwood were the brides. ERIE INTEREST DISTRIBUTED. tta Cowing Miss Lizzie Clark and All wore pretty Parisian gowns ded large bunches of white roses. Walter Edsall was the best man the Messrs. Tackabery, Hebbarl, am Slayback and Edward Slayback

ev. J. Wesley Brown, rector of St. s's Church, officiated. Mrs. John D. Slayback, Mr. and W. P. White, Mrs. Lafayette OlMr. and Mrs. George Thomas, Mr.
Mrs. J. S. Knapp, Mrs. T. L. HeiLise Hedden, Mr. and Mrs. Charles thington, Mr. and Mrs. Dyer Pearl, and Mrs. Lafayette Oiney, Jr., and Mrs. Charles Oiney.

RICH-FILLMORE.

RICH—FILLMORE.

Ston Heather Rich, son of Mr. Aquila Rich, of Staten Island, Harriette Fillmore were marked advance in Vale a form that day afternoon at 2.30 o'clock line ran up a sorre of 42-6 against the Volumer No. Archdeacon Johnson, of Christ Church, S. L. and Rev. Dr. Annam, now of St. Paul's Church, New York The bride wore a white satin gown, simply made, with high corsage, bouffaut sleeves and long train. Her tulle veil fell from a corronet of orange blossoms, and her bouquet of bride roses was fringed with lilles of the valley. She was given away by her grandfather, Mr. Luther Fillmore, of Oakland, Cal. Miss Elia Goodall, of Oakland, Cal. Miss Miss Elia Goodall, of Oakland, Cal. Miss Miss Elia Goodall, of Oakland, Cal. Miss Miss El

HULL-HOWELL. HULL—HOWELL.

The wedding of Miss Mary Brainard Howell and Mr. John W. Hull. of Tenafity, N. J. took place yesterday at noon in Calvary Church at Fourth avenue and Twenty-first street.

The chancel was trimmed with yellow and white chrysanthemums and palms and the ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Henry Y. Satterlee. The bride was given away by her father, Mr.

Brainard Howell. She was richly attired in white satin, with point lace rufflings on a high corsage and trained skirt and wore a tulle veil caught with a coronet of orange blossoms, and diamond ornaments.

Miss Biglin, daughter of Bernard Biglin, was the maid of honor and the Misses G. Damon Smith, of Hartford. Conn.; Beulah A. Hine, of Tennfly, N. J.; Edith Jackson, of Bradford, Pa. and Alice A. Biglin, of Belliport, L. L. were the brideamaids. All were in yellow satin gowns, frilled with chiffon, and carried chrysanthemums. Mr. James L. Robinson, Jr., of Bergen Point, N. J.; Mr. Howard Hasbrouck, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Mr. Elins H. Sisson, Jr., of Tennsily, N. J., and Mr. Robert J. Fox, of this city, were the ushers, and Mr. Frink A. Brastow, of Staten Island, was the best man. Later there was a bridal breakfast and reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brainard Howell, No. 27 West Twenty-third street.

WATSON—MURRAY. WATSON-MURRAY.

WATSON-MURRAY.

A pretty home wedding was that of Miss Constance Murray and Mr. Joseph Edwin Watson, celebrated last evening at the residence or the bride's father, Mr. Robert Murray, No. 221 West One Hundred and Thirtieth street. The bride wore a superb white satin gown, with ruffleys and draperies of point lace and tulls veil secured with orange blossoms and diamond ornaments. She carried a bouquet of bride roses. Rev. George R. Vandewater performed the ceremony.

Mr. Whitfield Price Pressinger was the best man and there were no ushers or bridesmaids.

best man and there were no ushers or bridesmalds.

PORTER—HIGHET.

Miss Carrie Highet and Mr. Joseph L. Porter were married last evening in St. Andrew's Church, at Fifth avenue and One Hundred and Twenty seventh street. The bride wore an ivory satin gown, trimmed with accordion-pailed chiffon. It was made high in the corsage, with bouffant sleeves and long train, over which fell the voluminous tulle vell. secured with a diamond sunburst, which was the bridegroom's gift. Her bouquet was of lilies of the valley. Her maid of honor and only attendant was Miss Irene Robinson, a niece of the bridegroom. She was attired in pale green sik, flowered in Dresden fashion with pink postes and frilled with chiffon. She carried a big bunch of pink roses. Rev. George R. Vandewater performed the ceremony. The Messrz, Gerald Stanton, Robert C. Kerry, Charles Hail, John Durphee and Robert Walbridge were the ushers.

DAVIS—THOMPSON.

BROUGHT THE PILOT OVER.

from Leaving the Lahn. A heavy gale has been blowing along the course of the transatlantic steam ers and south as far as the Bermuda Islands. The steamer Lahn, from Bremen and Southampton, which arrived this morning, had a rough passage. The weather was so bad leaving Southampdropped, and he was brought to this port.

The bark Bennorato, from Smyrna, encountered a hurricane blowing from the northeast, about 300 miles southwest of Bermuda, which lasted nine hours and blew away several saits.

The bark America suffered from high winds and heavy seas in latitude 29 and longitude 70. It was found necessary to cut away the ports in order to free the decks of the water which rolled in over the rails.

decks of the water which the rails.

The coast patrol at Brenton's Point Life Saving Station reports that a freight steamer displayed signals of distress off Brenton's Reef about 3 o'clock last night, but finally steered off in the teeth of the gale without assistance.

Precedence in Court.

Judge Lacombe, of the United States order, directing and authorizing the receivers of the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad to pay the interand Western Railroad to pay the interest due on the Collateral Trust bonds and the Funded Coupon bonds of 1885, of that road the first mortgage bonds of the Chicago and Eriz Railroad Company, and the first mortgage bonds of the Chicago and Eriz Railroad Company, and the first mortgage bonds of the Chicago and Eriz Railroad Company, and the first mortgage bonds of the New York, Lake Eric and Western Railroad Company.

Mrs. John D. Slayback, Mr. and W. P. White, Mrs. Lafayette Oleva, T. L. And Western Railroad to pay the interest mortgage bonds of the New York, Lake Eric and Western Railroad to pay the interest deal of the Funded Coupon bonds of the Chicago and Eriz Railroad to pay the interest due on the Collateral Trust bonds and the Funded Coupon bonds of that road the first mortgage bonds of the New York, Lake Eric and Western Railroad to pay the interest due on the Collateral Trust bonds and the Funded Coupon bonds of the Chicago and Eriz Railroad to pay the interest due on the Collateral Trust bonds and the Funded Coupon bonds of the Chicago and Eriz Railroad Company, and the Funded Coupon bonds of the Chicago and Eriz Railroad Company.

Judge Lacombe's opinion as to what action the receiver should take about paying the Interest was published in yestern Railroad to pay the interest due on the Collateral Trust bonds and the Funded Coupon bonds of the Chicago and Eriz Railroad to pay the interest due on the Collateral Trust bonds and the Funded Coupon bonds of the Chicago and Eriz Railroad Company.

Judge Lacombe's opinion as to what action the receivers should take about paying the Interest was published in yesterday's "Evening World."

FOOTBALL CHAT.

extortionate price asset for Manhattan Field, an because there are no other suitable grounds. I New York. The latter part of this accertion is paipably frue. The price of Manhattan Field is exactly what it has been for the past two years, and it is certain that the college than accers will charge the usual "extortionate prices" for seats. If the personal greatene of the Yale manager had not blinded his highment, Manhattan Field could have been had for 22 on-which is one-third the usual sum—at any time during the last thype weeks, as the offer was made to the collectans in writing. Thus the "extortion" tale is punctured like the other biggs from Yale this season.

The best suggestion made thus far is the on-hat the New York Baseball Club manage the org same. The Club controls Manhattus Fiel-tow, as well as the Fole Grounds, has handled else crawing satisfactority, and would doubties indertake the task of appearing the collection quidty and affording the public a fair chan-o secure seats.

S. P. Love, of Pittsfield, Mana. was presented assistant Manager of the Wesleyan Baseball team in place of P. L. Parker, of Wesleyd, Mana. resigned

Peculiar Perils

Assali our health in the Pall, when the season changes and mild weather gives way to chilling winds and cold storms, with dangerous warm waves between. This variable weather taxes the But he and his family were fast asleep nervous energy, chills the skin and overloads the sidneys. An abundant supply of pure blood is thus necessary to prevent the advance of disease, to nourish the nerves, renew the waste and sue-

ONE TWIN WEDDED AUNTY. OUT AGAINST SCHOBER.

ing the Record of Major Lentz's Man pathy of Gen. Sewell, Mayor Lentz of

But Which? The Marshes Look so Much The Christian Citizenship Union of Alike That Maybe the Lady Her-Essex County Will Hold an Inself Doesn't Know. dignation Meeting

THE ONE THAT DID IS A BIGAMIST. HIS CANDIDACY WORRIES THE G. O. P.

His Lawyer Say It Must Have Been Charles, if Either.

vult," said Edwin J. Marsh yesterday, considered by a meeting of the Christian like as he was leaving the Quarter Sessions Citizenship Union in the First Presby-Court-room in Newark. "I never mar-ried Mrs, Neille Hillis." lever mar-lecutive session. There will be a public "That's right," remarked ex-Senator meeting first, at which it is expected at

Barrett to the World reporter. "I have least two thousand people will attend, here four witnesses to prove that on The case has attracted deep interest. the day of her alleged marriage. Edwin among all classes, creeds and parties in speak as a last reset to br. spr. J. Marsh, instead of being in Jersey Essex County, and it is determined that City, was in Milburn buying a horse," | no such man shall go to the Legislature, "Then why let your client plead guilty whether he has the support and symto bigamy?"

four witnesses they had twelve, includ-ing the minister who performed the cere-self upon the mercy of the Court in the hope of saving himself from the term in State prison that seemed inevitable if he had fought the case to the end. But this plea and his subsequent declaration of innocence make more complicated than ever what is regarded as New Jersey's star bigamy mystery.

According to the testimony on which Marsh was indicted he went to Jersey City on Sunday, Dec. 1, 186, and there met his aunt, Mrs. Neilie Hills, to whom he was married that day by Rev. Dr. Stoddard. Marsh was then keeping a gracery store in Irvington and living with his father, a respected citizen and married Aunt Neilie," was the startling highly commended on all sides. It was explanation given by Edwin after being decided at a meeting of the Executive Twas my twin brother Charlie who married Auni Nellie. Was the startling explanation given by Edwin after being between the property of the Michael Charles and willing to see Edward and the startling shad dull at the resemblance he was the startling of the same willing to see Edward and the startling that they add to be close together before one could tell which was which.

What helped to deepen the mystery was the fact that Charles kept out of the way and managed to dodge per persons to represent the people. At the meeting to night the principal address will be made by John G. Wooley. At the meeting to night the principal address will be made by John G. Wooley. At the meeting to night the principal address will be made by John G. Wooley. At the meeting to night the principal address will be made by John G. Wooley. At the meeting to night the principal address will be made by John G. Wooley. At the meeting the proper persons to represent the people. At the meeting the proper persons to represent the people. At the meeting the proper persons to represent the people. At the meeting of the Executive Sensitive of the Marsh Shope and any others who may not be considered proper persons to represent the people. At the meeting of the Executive Sensitive of the Marsh Shope and the proper persons to represent the people. At the meeting of the Executive Sensitive of the Marsh Shope and the proper persons to represent the people. At the meeting of the Executive Sensitive of the Marsh Shope and the proper persons to represent the people. At the meeting of the Executive Sensitive of the Marsh Shope and the proper persons to represent the people. At the meeting of the Executive Sensitive of the Marsh Shope and the property persons to represent the people. At the meeting of the Executive Sensitive of the Marsh Shope and the property of the Marsh Shope

EVANS CITY, Pa., Nov. 1.-An aged Jerman farmer named John Kouse, was killed by two masked men at his resilence, near here, last evening. Kouse was supposed to keep some money about the house. The strangers entered without giving an alarm. Kouse was sitting lear the fire and his wife and daughter were in the form at the time, and one of the strangers commanded Kouse to hold up his hants.

Instead of doing so he reached his hand out for the poker. As he did so he was shot in the heart and instantly killed. The masked men hear a hasty retreat without accomplishing the purported. etreat without accomplishing the pur-pose of their visit, which was undoubtedly robbery. No accurate description of the men has been obtained.

TRAMPS MAY HAVE CAUSED IT

No Evidence of Arson in the Thir ty-second Street Fire.

Fire Marshal Mitchell, who investigated the fire at 216 West Thirty-second street. wherein seven persons lost their lives said this morning that the fire was purely accidental. "The only person to be benefited by the said he. "was Grover Fondellier is the and his family were fast askeep on the third floor, at the time of the fire and marrowly escaped being burned.

"The house was supposed to be closed up at 10 o'c at every hight. Investigation, however, has shown that tramps very frequently entered after that hour and slept in the cellar. They could easily get in by putting their hands through a break in the front door sash and turning the latch.
"It was probably one of these tramps who, after entering the cellar, carelessly threw away a lighted match that started the blaze."

ing hearts, regardless of creed or clime, Sewark, I became dangerously III. Me house

A Christian lady gave me a mother's care, but my disease buffled medical skill, and I was irvated for maladies which I never had. At length it was diagnosed as LCCOMOTOR ATAXIA, the sirged to place me in a hospital. Science had No. 53 Bruen St., Newark, N. J.

Every English Overcoat that we have brought out has become famous. This season's garment is long and loose; a coat for fashionable dressers. ON SALE AT OUR STORES ONLY.

Fulton Building, Fulton and Nassau Sts.

160, 162, 164 East 125th Street.

EST'D 1807. B. M. COWPERTHWAIT & CO. EST'D 1807.

with his father, a respected citizen and property owner. The young man recturned home, and there was no hint that Mrs. Hillis was more town an auth to him until last June. Mrs. Hillis was intri-duced to her as his wife, with whom Marsh had gone through.

The World of yesterday was bought in claim. Estwin's firsten was satisfied that the young man had committed big amy and caused his arrest.

The world of yesterday was bought in large bundles by the organizations belonging to the union, and its work in deshing the law-breaking element is migried Aum Nellie," was the startling explanation given by Edwin after being explanation given by Edwin after being explanation given by Edwin after being explanation given by Edwin after being. $65 WORTH OF GOODS $1 WEEKLY. ANY AMOUNT IN PROPORTION.

NO EXTRA CHARGES OF ANY KIND.

Only one visit necessary; Collections made if requested.

ex-District-Attorney of Minneapolis and PRICES MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES. GOODS SENT EVERYWHERE EVERY DAY.

MR. CUYLER IN ERROR.

to Antedate the Harvard Game. C. C. Cuyler, one of Princeton's bestquoted as saying Yale decided imme-diately after the Thanksgiving Day defeat by Princeton, last year, that this year the annual match would have to be deferred for at least a week after the Yale-Harvard match. Mr. Cuyler the Yale-Harvard match. must have been misquoted, or he has been misled. Absolutely no official communication was sent to the Harvard management matter promises to make a fittle up.

"His plea has vindicated me." Mrs.

"His plea has vindicated me." Mrs.

Hills said. I am not vindictive, and we shall pass resolutions re
"His plea has vindicated me." Mrs.

Hills said. I am not vindictive, and we shall pass resolutions re
"His plea has vindicated me." Mrs.

Hills said. I am not vindictive, and we shall pass resolutions re
"His plea has vindicated me." Mrs.

Hills said. I am not vindictive, and we shall pass resolutions re
"His plea has vindicated me." Mrs.

Hills said. I am not vindictive, and we shall associated by the said of the said equesting that the date of the Yale-Harvard match be moved forward, eith-

the Tigers the worst thrasing they received.

Even now, Yale is seizing every possible advantage, even to putting spies in the teams against Princeton; dictating to the champions not only the date, but the place of the armual match; insisting upon having officials whose work in last year's Princeton-Pennsylvania game was extremely obnoxious to Princeton. The policy, 'All's fair in love and footbail' is inbred at New Haven, but appears to be unknown and unsupposable at Princeton. Winter Helmets Adorn the Mem-During the last ten days about 2.800

NEW POLICE HATS.

bers of the "Finest" To-Day.

On and after to-day the police fore quarters and been furnished with their new hats. The cost is $1.95 each, the

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,

When she was a Child, she cried for 'astoria,

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,

When she had Children, she gave the a Castoria

THE TWO MILI ION

WORLD EMPLOYERS.

PAYS FOR A 20-WORD

STATE DEMOCRACY WINS. They Can Get a Writ to Have Their furnisher being Spellman.

There was some difficulty this year over the award of the contract, and Hatter Knox threatened to go before the Lexow Committee and tell how the Police Board awarded contracts. The matter was evidently satisfactorily adjusted, as Mr. Knox did not appear before the Committee. Candidates on the Official Ballot. Justice Barrett, of the Supreme Court, o-day handed down a decision to the ffect that John Jeroloman and the other effect that John Jeroloman and the other.

New York State Democracy candidates are entitled to a writ of mandamus to people have been victimized. The Association compel the Board of Police Commission-full determined, therefore that from this date further notice they will offer the GENUINE ballot headed by the regular State Democratic candidates.

Justice Barrett's opinion is very brief, and simply states that his decision is based on the decision rendered yesterday by the General Term of the Surreme Court, Brooklyn, in the case of John J. Mitchell.

The Jeroloman case was argued before Justice Barrett last Tuesday by the Law Committee of the State Democracy. The case of Mr. Jeroloman. fore Justice Barrett last Tuesday by the Law Committee of the State Democracy. The case of Mr. Jeroloman, who is a candidate for President of the Board of Aldermen, was made as a test case, and intended to affect the other candidates of his party.

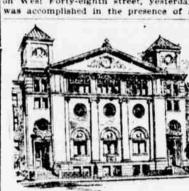

Train Robbery Reported.

(By Associated Press.) ST. LOUIS, Nov. L-A special to the Post-Despatch from Birmingham, Ala., eports a train robbery on the Kansas

Situation
Advi. and it will WORK
YOU
WANT. CAPPERS and Rugs sold at CowPERTHWAIT'S, 104 West 14th st., at panic prices.

THIS ESTABLISHMENT HAS NO BRANCHES. A BISHOP LAID THE CORNER-STONE. THEY SAY

Two Congregations Begun-The laying of the corner-stone of the new Union Methodist Episcopal Church, dimired Alumni, and formerly the head on West Forty-eighth street, yesterday of her Graduate Advisory Committee, is was accomplished in the presence of a of her Graduate Advisory Committee, is was accomplished in the presence of a ers and responsive readings were given before Bishop J. P. Newman, D.D., LL. D., made the chief address, Bishop E. G. Andrews, D. D. LL. D., laid the stone. Among the articles placed therein was a copy of The World.

The new church is a result of the efforts of Rev. James M. King, D. D. who served as paster for the St. John's M. E. Church, on Fifty-third street, twenty years ago, and later at the Bloomingdale M. E. Church, on Forty-third street, By a unanimous vote of the congregations of both churches they have dropped out of legal existence and have formed a new organization, to be known as the Union M. E. Church. This body now helds the property of the two churches.

SEC. WILLIAMS INDICTED.

Permitted a Wheel of Fortune to Run at the Galesburg Fair.

GALESBURG, III., Nev. 1.-C. W. Williams, Secretary of the Galesburg District Fair Association has been in

SPECIAL SALE Electric Belt $1.00

THE PALL MALL ELECTRIC ASSOCIATION London and New York make the following at neumrement to the American public: Having a vertiage our Electric Betta very largely in London

DR. SCOTT'S ELECTRIC BELT ONE DOLLAR

GEORGE A. SCOPT, 842 Broadway, corne 13th st. New York.

A VALUABLE BOOK FREE on application.

PRICE 35cts Also sold in 2 0z packages 5 cts with PIPE coupon

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE.

st. There is the keynote of our business. WE MAKE AND SELL ONLY SUCH FURNITURE AS WE ARE SURE OF. We know every fibre and every thread and every bair in it. WE KNOW ITHAT BETTER, MORE HONEST FURNITURE EAST Clinton late last night, Sixteen men, some of whom were tramps and VE ARE SURE OF. We know every fibre and

We put into it the best art of the best design money and beating their way home, were in a box-car. Suddenly there was a sharp rap for admittance, and those inside, supposing some one wanted shelter, openiness, there is an immense amount of satisficial in principle, right in practice, right in price. We received that the business is right. Right Two of the men entered the car and commanded the occupants to throw up their hands. They then ordered them to stand in line, and while one of the a brains. The styles are distinguished and beau-FEEL THAT IT IS TO YOUR OWN INTEREST. MORE EVEN THAN IT IS TO OURS, THAT YOU

"BUY OF THE MAKER." CEO. C. FLINT CO., 43, 45 and 47 West 23d St., NEAR BROADWAY.

LIQUIDATION SALE HIGH-CLASS FURNITURE At Less Than Half Value.

The Trustees of the late J. S. Gillies are closing out the entire stock of fine PARLOR, DINING-ROOM, HEDROOM AND LIBRARY PURNITURE, TOGETHER WITH ART NOVELTIES, regardless of prices, to close the estate. A RARE OPPORTUNITY. Pormer selling price marked in plata figures. BY ORDER OF

A. & J. CILLIES,
TRUNTEES,
35 AND 37 WEST 23D ST.

MIKADO RUCS. 9x12, 86-95 DURING OUR

GREAT FIRE SALE We HAVE MARKED DOWN every article

Furniture, Carpets, Matting, Rugs, &c. whether damaged or not, from the recent fire in VAN DYKE BUILDING. Unusual inducements offered to you to furnish your Homes now.

ANDREW LESTER'S SONS. 939 TO 945 STH AVE . NEAR SOTH ST. A FIRST-CLASS HOUSE ON 8TH AVE.

GET OVERCOAT NOW, AND SEE THOSE LINED OVERCOATS. THEY ARE GREAT.

ENGLISH KERSEY OVERCOATS,

THEY WORLD-BEATERS.

MELTON OVERCOATS,

ARE

MONEY-SAVERS.

Beyn' DOUBLE-BREASTED 1.69 CLOTHING COMPANY,

86 and 88 Bowery St., cor. Hester. OPEN EVENINGS.

Y.M.C.A. PRESIDENT ACCUSED

said to Have Robbed a Suntington Bank of $10,000.

(By Associated Press.)
HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 1.— Charles Wilkinson, a recognized social leader, a Sunday school superintendent and the President of the local Y. M. C., A., is alleged to be a defaulter. He has been assistant cashier of the First National Bank for five years. A week ago he resigned, ostensibly to take a better position in Cincinnati. A warrant has been issued for his arrest, charging him been issued for his arrest, charging him with stealing $10,000.

He was to have been married to a daughter of the cashier after the holidays. It is said that his friends are trying to make up the deficiency keep him out of prison. He did no drink to excess and never was known to gamble. arrest, charging him

NOVEL HOLD-UP IN IOWA.

Masked Men Rob Tramps and Mer Who Were Stealing a Ride. (By Associated Press.)

others workmen, who were saving their money and beating their way home, were

CHICAGO POLICEMAN SHOT.

Officer Krum Loses His Life in the Performance of Duty. (By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Policeman George

Krum, of the Canalport avenue police station, was shot and killed at 1.30 o'clock this morning at 161 West Twen-tieth street, a place of ill-repute, where he had gone to stop a row between inhe had gone to stop a row between inmates.

The officer, hearing a disturbance in the house as he passed, entered and ordered the men to be quiet. He was answered by a pistol shot, and returned the fire, badly wounding Thomas Burns,
The latter continued to fire at the officer, who finally fell dead, his body pierced by three bullets. Burns was removed to the hospital, and the remainder of the inmates were arrested and locked up.

BOSTON CARS MAY STOP.

Conductors and Motormen Said Be Contemplating a Strike.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The conductors an motormen of the West End Street Rail way Company are considering the advis-ability of "tying up" the road, because of grievances against the management.

The men claim that the Commony regards the agreement better union, and the strike said to be strong with matter will be decided at to-morrow night.

SEE IT! You will be surprise play of FURNITURE and please at GEO. C. FLINT Co.'s, West 2